	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • [H1] Luc Vanlaere • [H1] If the harp would become the tree again that it was made of, i would invite you to sit in his shadow and listen. In this complex and tumultuous world the sound of the harp provides consolation to many people. My compositions are a delicate attempt to make the harp speak, to tell her own story that mysteriously seems to express our own deepest feelings. Being able to share this experience with you is my inexhaustable source of happiness and satisfaction. • [H1] Bruges Concerts Wednesdays till Saturdays at 3 , 5 and 6.30 pm • [H1] These concerts are an excellent stand still in the busy city of Bruges, but they form a small harp museum at the same time. Both modern and historical instruments from different parts of the world are not only on display but they are played during an eclectic mix of music and sounds that can not be dicribed as classical, nor pop, nor jazz... but with elements of all of them. • [H1] Concerts from wednesday to saturday at 3 pm, 5 pm, and 6.30 pm. Concert time 40 minutes Free entry, donation welcome but not obliged No pressure for money Location "SITE OUD SINT JAN" Mariastraat 38 Opposite "Our Lady" Church Next to the Sint Janshospitaal and "Memling" Museum Families welcome with kids older than 5 Accessible for wheelchairs No reservations. Please arrive in time. GROUPS can ask for extra concert at 11 am or 1 pm Contact by email to lucvanlaere.harp@gmail.com • [H1] So many happy faces • [H1] • [H1] Luc Vanlaere was born in the village of Wingene close to Bruges in the heart of Flanders. He is a free minded artist with a very particular approach to music and natural sound, which he performs in a totally unique way. Formal singer-song-writer, but harpist in all the vains, he developed a wayward vision on being an artist in these highly industrialised times. By declining all kinds of commercial networks like distribution of cd's, online downloading, agencies, editors etc... he protects his authenticity and stays close to his internal wish of playing and composing. The idea of "sharing" rather than selling tickets allows all people to be part of his sound experience • [H1] Instruments built by • [H1] luc vanlaere • [H1] LYRE OF UR • [H1] egyptian arched harp • [H1] PYTHAGOREAN SOUNDHARP • [H1] LYRE of megiddo known asthe harp of king david • [H1] BEGENA • [H1] Niatyti • [H2] audio • [H2] CD INTAClassical & Celtic Harps - Chinese harpHandpan -
